Nate,
How can
I say "thank-you" for making
this year so great?
You've done so much to make it that way. There's so many memories
to think back on:
The Dance... conventions, house parties... and everything else. I'll never forget you and everything! Good luck always!

Mr. Senko was honored by being selected to attend the Ninth Annual Youth Conference on the Atom, which was held in Chicago. Mr. Senko and fellow delegates confer with Dr. Glenn Seaborg (left), chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

We are appreciative of the many years of dedicated and enthusiastic service unselfishly given by Mr. John Curcio to the students and teachers of H.H.S.

Patience, understanding, and determination:
these make a teacher successful.

Wit, humor, and sincerity:
these make a teacher popular.

Inspiration, encouragement, and friendship:
these make a teacher live forever
in the minds of his students.

To Mr. Leskie,
the successful, popular teacher
who has made an indelible imprint on all,
we dedicate our JANUS.

With only two returning starters, a smattering of lettermen, and a new coaching staff, the Mountaineers were to have a dismal rebuilding year according to the pre-season buffs. They were proved to be wrong. Starting slowly, the inexperienced Mounts gained momentum and finished the season in an avalanche, winning their last five games.

In the season opener Hazleton lost to formidable Bethlehem Catholic. The Mounts rebounded with an impressive win over a perennial nemesis, Berwick—Coach Sieminski's former team. Following a disappointing loss to Kingston Catholic, the Mounts pulverized Tamaqua but dropped their next two encounters to Scranton Tech and Shikellamy. Little did the gloating prognosticators realize that this heartbreaking loss to unbeaten conference champion, Shikellamy, would be the Mountaineers' last. Bethlehem Freedom was the first victim on Hazleton's victory trail. A fine Shamokin team next tasted defeat. The Mounts then tuned up for their annual Turkey Day Classic by whomping Minersville and Wilkes-Barre GAR. In the season finale the Mountaineers capped a fine season by whipping the Wildcats on Thanksgiving Day.

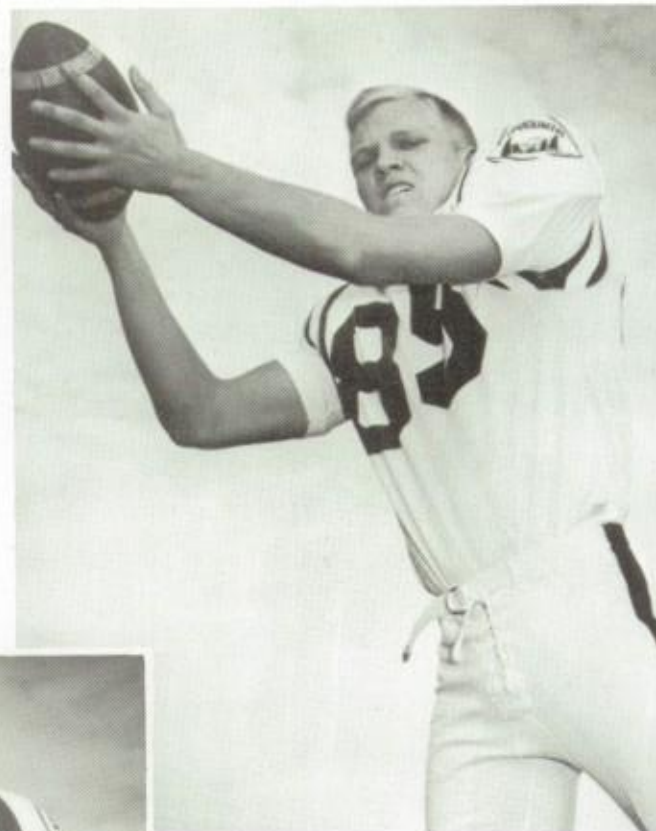

Quarterback Tommy Scarcella engineered the Mounts' attack, and he shattered several passing records in the process. On the receiving end of many of Tom's passes was end Joe Portland, who established a Hazleton record for pass receptions. Ron, "the Bomb," Haverstock rambled for well over a thousand yards, and his partner in the backfield, Marty Kusmider, was a steady two-way performer. Jim Weber anchored the Mountaineer line, and, along with Helms Buchman, Ed Diaz, Tony Marino, Ed Serafin, and Dan Wizda provided plenty of protection and running room for the backs. The punting and kicking chores were well-handled by Buddy Smith, and the defense was sparked by rugged Bernie Marshall. Fleet-footed Jackie Petrovich spearheaded the defensive secondary. These Seniors formed the nucleus of a team which displayed much individual achievement; however, it was the outstanding team play and spirit which made the 1967 football Mountaineers a success.

The Mountaineer line was anchored by 6'1", 215 lb. captain, Jim Weber. A veteran of two varsity seasons before the 1967 campaign, Weber supplied the experience needed by the young Mounts. For his outstanding performance on the gridiron, Weber was named to the second team All-State, the Big 33, the All-Anthracite Team, and the All-Southern Conference Team.

A huge gap in the Mountaineer backfield was plugged when 6'0", 205 lb. Ron Haverstock transferred from Ohio. The rugged fullback carried the football for more than 1,000 yards and was also a key pass receiver. For his efforts, Ron received Honorable Mention on the All-State Team, Honorable Mention on the Big 33 Team, and was named to the All-Southern Conference and All-Anthracite teams.

Senior Varsity Basketball

The 1967-1968 Mountaineer cagers competed in the perennially tough East Penn League. Six seniors performed for Coach Fran Libonati. Darrel Farkus, Steve Yenchko, Bob O'Donnell, and Bob Farnell sparked the Mounts to a respectable 11-11 log. Greg Persico was a fine reserve, and Joe Portland also saw action. The Mountaineer's true potential was displayed in the season finale when they drubbed a strong Bethlehem five.

After seventeen years of unselfish service, Coach Lawrence Kushmider completed his last season as head of the swimming department. Coach Kushmider and the swimmers produced a commendable 5-6 season against some very strong competition, losing several meets in the last event.

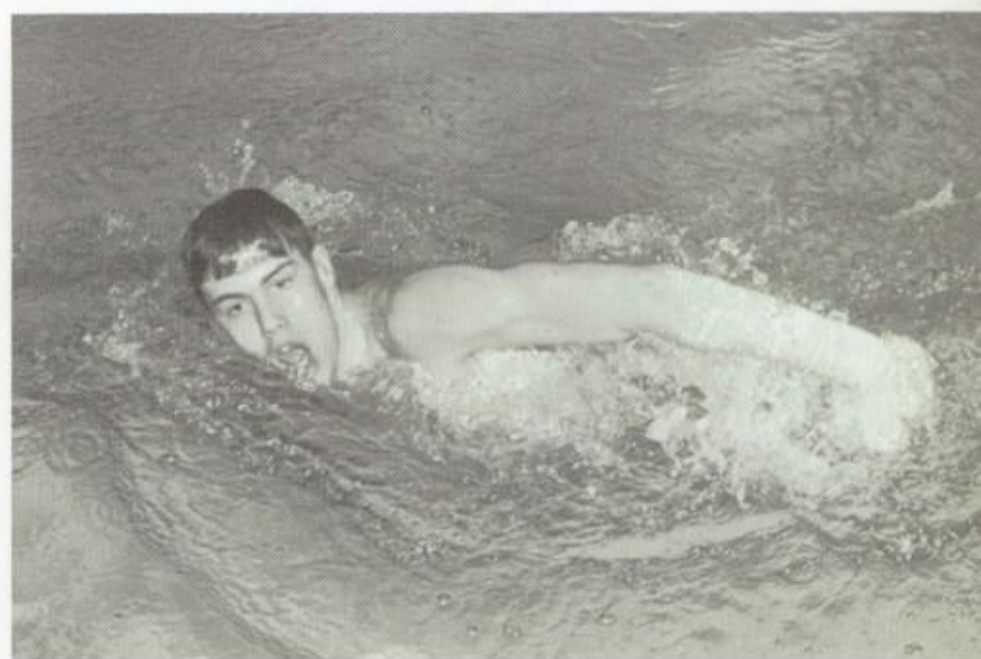

Also bowing out of the H.H.S. swimming scene are eight lettermen who have done a fine job for Coach Kushmider by breaking many records home and away. They are Terry Jones, Joe Persico, Jim Scalise, Dave Schumacher, Bud Smith, Donald Laputka, Billy McNelis, Joe Banyas and Tom Ciotola.

The Girls' Swimming Team, one of the newest interscholastic teams at Hazleton High School, showed promising signs for the future. Although the girls were defeated in the four meets of their 1967-68 season, they made a good showing. One of their losses was by only one point, and another was decided in the last event.

Thespians

The Thespians opened their season on November 14 with the presentation of The Crucible, by Arthur Miller. Set in the stormy atmosphere of colonial New England, The Crucible examined the social and moral questions of that period.

THE GIFT OF THE MAGI

The legend of the Gift of the Magi was retold in a modern setting. During a time when commercialism rules Christmas, the audience was reminded to give the most precious gift of all—the gift of love.

Miss Postupack receives a Christmas gift from the Thespians.

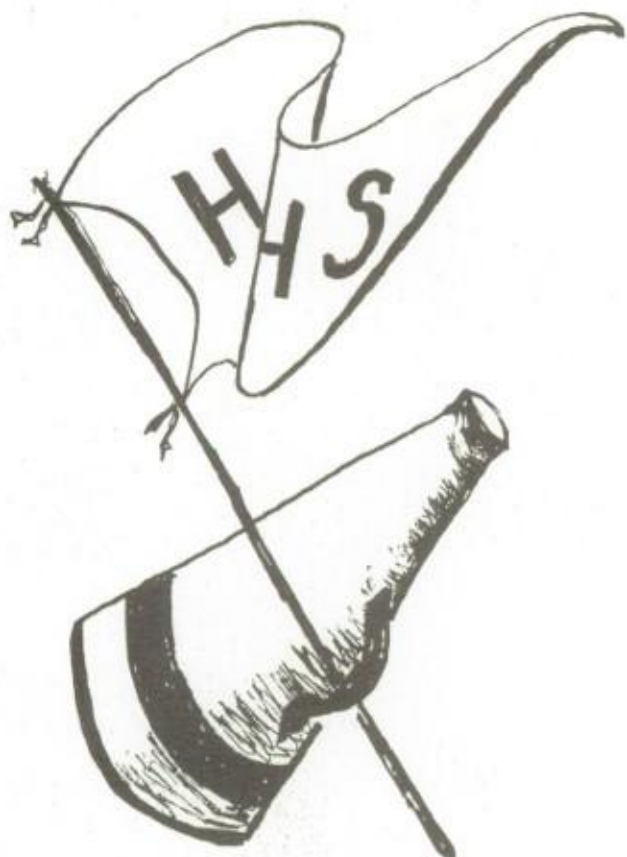

WILLIAM LETH, Vice-President; ANN MARIE KLAPPER, Treasurer; MISS POSTUPACK, Advisor; JEFF SHAGEN, President; MARTHA PENSOCK, Secretary.

Thespian Troupe No. 257, under the direction of Miss Sandra Postupack, has been quite active this year. The members have presented two major productions and sponsored a trip to New York. In June a puppet show for the Fine Arts Festival was presented by the Thespians to encourage interest in and appreciation of dramatics as well as to give the members experience in acting and other stage activities.

(Standing): MARK TONIATTI, Vice-President, ALYS ROUSE, Treasurer, ANNETTA VITO, Secretary, TERRY JONES, President. (Seated): MR. BYOREK, Advisor.

Spirit Club

The Spirit Club under the supervision of Mr. Edward Byorek is the largest club at H.H.S. An organized cheering section and a card section inspire school spirit at our athletic events. The projects sponsored by the Spirit Club are running buses to games and selling Mountaineer license plates and key chains.

Cadettes

The Cadette Club is the Hazleton Branch of the Y-Teen Club. Some of the service projects of the Cadettes have been sending food to needy families, supporting an orphan overseas, soliciting for UNICEF, and sending Christmas cards to our soldiers in Vietnam. The social activities of the Cadettes included the Sadie Hawkins Dance, the Christmas Semi, the Spring Semi, and a Mother-Daughter Tea.

JANET SCHAEFFER, President.

Mr. Tricolli . . . Advisor

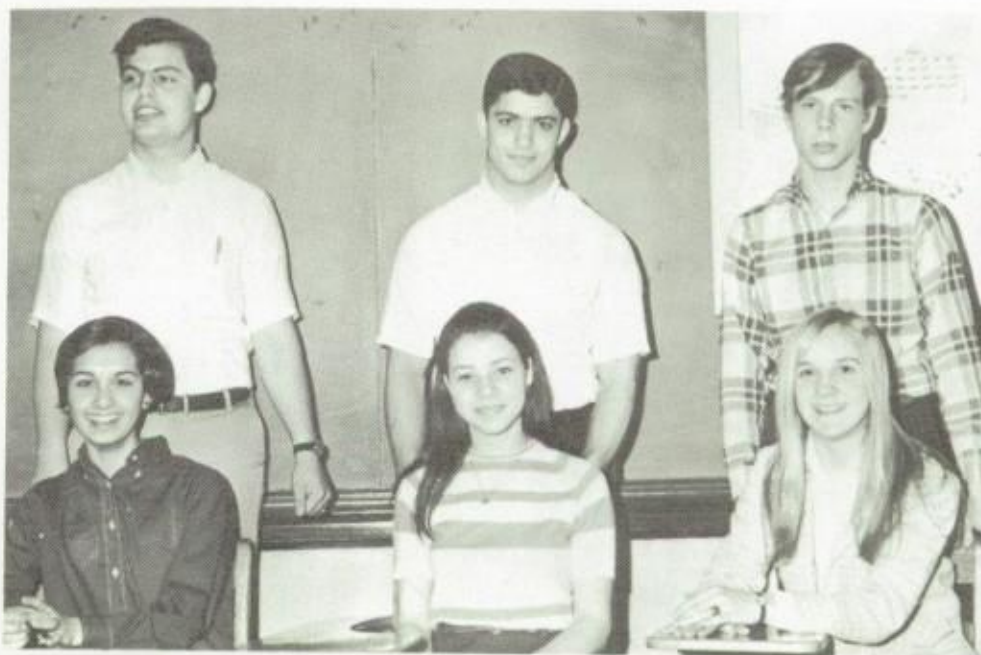

Student Council

As elected representatives of the student body, the Student Council sets codes of discipline and student regulations. The Student Council, advised by Mr. James Tricolli, serves the school and community by sponsoring various dances throughout the year, by collecting food at Christmas for distribution to local needy families, and by co-operating with community organizations on various projects.

OFFICERS

Hub Cabinet

The Hub Cabinet, elected representatives of the area high schools, takes on the responsibility of organizing weekly dances at the YM-YWCA. They hire bands, decorate the gym, and arrange for special dances throughout the school year.

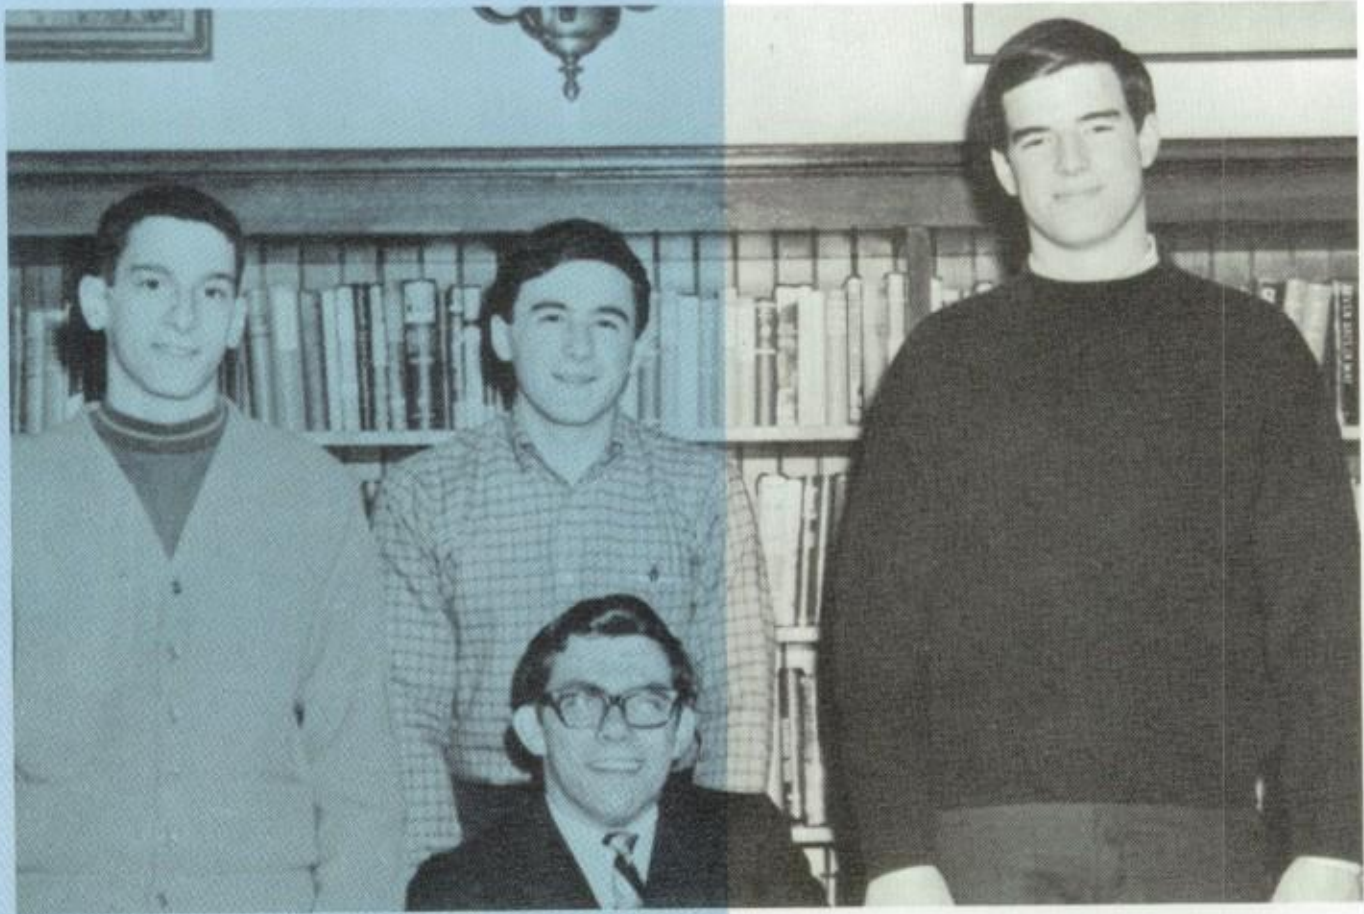

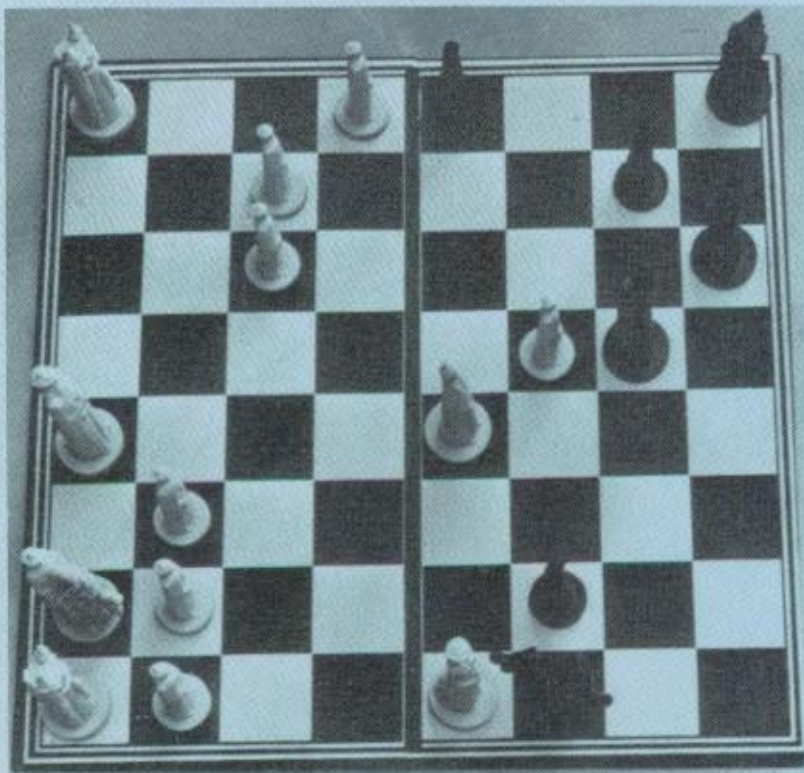

JAMES SCALLEAT AND KAREN ZIFF

King and Queen

(Standing): JAMES FAMALETTE, Secretary; JOHN MACOVIK, Vice-President; DONALD LAPUTKA, Treasurer. (Seated): DENNIS CARELLI, President.

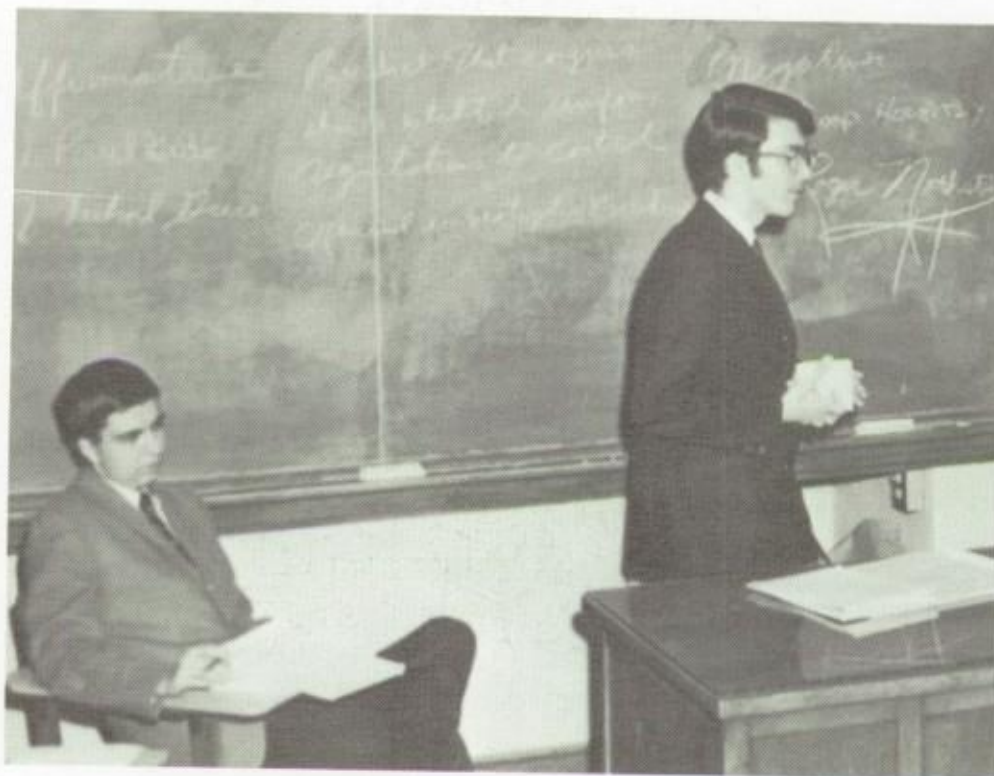

Chess Club

The Chess Club, the latest addition to the H.H.S. extracurricular activities, is one of the most active organizations. Members meet every Tuesday and Thursday after school to hold intramural tournaments. The advisors are Mr. Minor and Mr. Scarcella.

The topic for this year's debate team is "Should Congress establish uniform regulations to control criminal investigations procedures?" The Lincoln Debating Club, a member of the Catholic Forensic League and the Pennsylvania Speech League, holds regular intramural and interscholastic debates.

Debate Club

Paul Gido and Richard Greco, First Team Debaters.

(Standing): JOSEPH ESPOSITO, Treasurer; THOMAS MARUSAK, Vice-President; JOSEPH KASHI, Librarian. (Seated): CAROL PANE, Secretary; MR. McKELVEY, Advisor; GINO ANDREUZZI, President.

NANCY PANE, Service Chairman; DANNY PARRELL, Vice-President; JAMES SCALISE, President; GREG PERSICO, Secretary; RHONA NARROW, Treasurer; MRS. BECK, Advisor.

A record of past events; a calendar of coming ones; a place to air opinions on current controversial issues; an exhibit of the creative writing of our students:

that's the MOUNTAINEER.

The Diggers have been very active this year as a service club. They held a Halloween Party and a Christmas Party for the handicapped children at Arthur Street School and visited the White Haven State School. As members of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, they accumulate historical information about this region. Their fund raising projects were a Christmas Dance and the sale of Senior name cards.

F.T.A.

The F.T.A. public relations committee discusses plans for the Leap Year Dance sponsored by their club.

The F.T.A. is a club for all students interested in teaching as a career. The members visit nearby colleges with teaching programs. This year their activities included a Christmas Party at the Catholic Charities, Apple Day, and a Leap Year Dance.

F.N.A.

LINDA BARRETT,
Corresponding Secretary

Guest speakers at Future Nurses' meetings were directresses of recruitment from the U.S. Army Nurse Corps, the Hazleton State General Hospital, the Reading General Hospital, and other schools of nursing. Interested members participate in volunteer nursing programs. As their Christmas project this year, the girls took toys to the children at the White Haven State School.

Distributive Education

The purpose of the Distributive Education program is to develop future leaders in marketing and distributing goods.

This year our D.E. class has heard speakers from the Fuller Brush Company and Fairway Chevrolet and has toured the Scamper Sportswear Company.

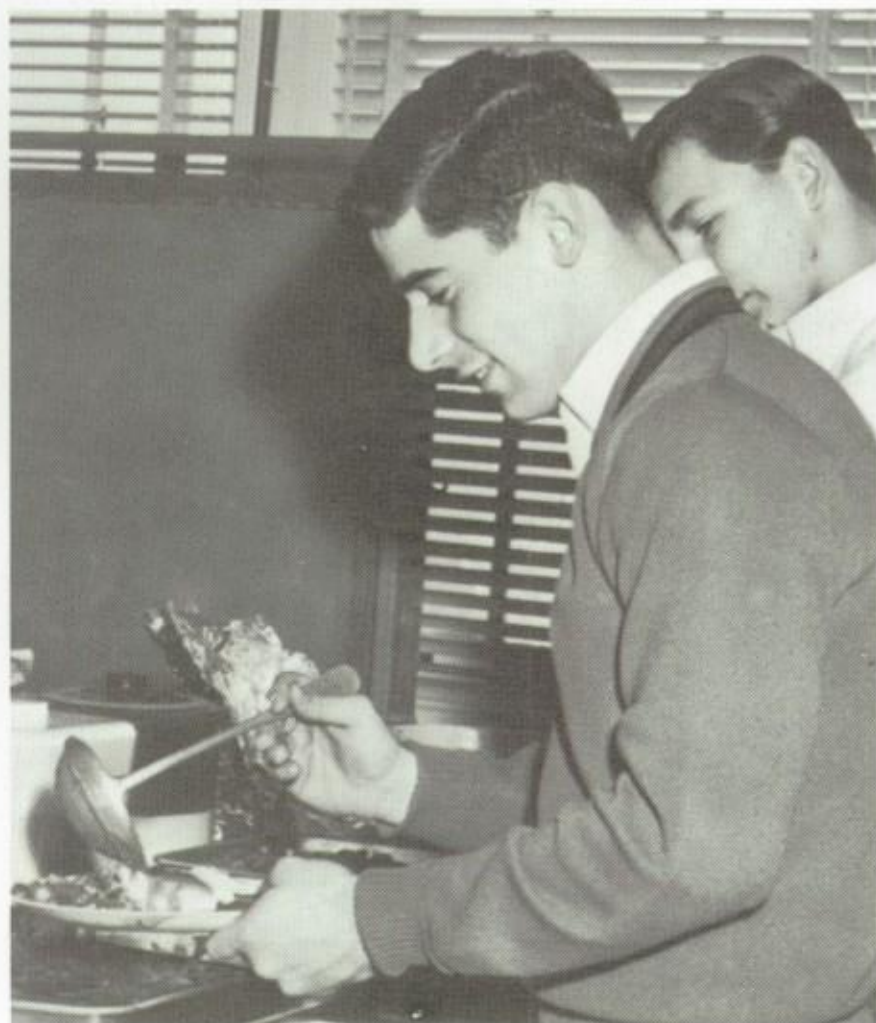

The members highlighted their Christmas season with a party at Gus Genetti's. Their speaker was Mr. James Malkames from the Luzerne County Community College.
